Grant Application – Problem Statement

Tips to Remember

- Be descriptive and specific
- Use up-to-date data
- Cite your sources
- Be thorough and concise
- Include realistic objectives and solutions
- Keep it simple and understandable

Grant Application – Problem Statement

Example:

[1] The number of domestic violence cases prosecuted by the Fourth Circuit Solicitor's Office increased greatly when its office was called upon to prosecute all domestic violence arrests. All domestic violence arrests are now sent to General Sessions Court. Until 2019, prosecution of these cases was not uniform across the circuit, with multiple Assistant Solicitors who are assigned to individual counties working them; almost any victim who requested a case dismissal was granted her/his request with the case being nolle prossed.

[2] Chesterfield County had 162 pending domestic violence cases in January 2021, Darlington County 131, Dillon County 69, and Marlboro County 86. By the end of 2021, Chesterfield County had 178 new domestic violence cases assigned, Darlington County 104, Dillon County 112, and Marlboro County 79. These numbers alone should prove the importance and necessity of continued grant funding for the domestic violence prosecution team that consists of one senior prosecutor and one case manager/investigator. Additional funding is requested for a domestic violence intervention prosecutor and a domestic violence intervention coordinator. By expanding the original 2-person domestic violence prosecution team will allow the opportunity for the senior prosecutor to focus solely on trial cases and the preparation that is required to get a domestic violence case ready for trial. The domestic violence intervention prosecutor would then focus solely on the new cases as they are assigned, allowing for much earlier intervention services to be an option for defendants and not allowing additional cases to be added to the backlog due to only having one prosecutor who cannot possibly be in 4 counties at the same time.

Grant Application – Problem Statement

Example:

In February 2019, Solicitor William Rogers transferred an Assistant Solicitor assigned to Chesterfield County to prosecute domestic violence cases throughout the Fourth Circuit. [5] The groundwork to establish a team has been laid, but currently consists only of the assigned Assistant Solicitor and a part-time intern. This Assistant Solicitor is assigned to prosecute 99% of domestic violence and domestic violence-related cases in all counties of the Fourth Circuit. [3] These include Domestic Violence of a High and Aggravated Nature, Domestic Violence 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Degree, Kidnapping, Attempted Murder, Murder, and others. This one lone, Assistant Solicitor will be assisting in a domestic-related death penalty trial later this year, as well.

The prosecution team meets with every victim who appears as requested; makes offers on cases after reviewing complete case files; attends appearances to meet with defendants and/or their attorneys to make offers and to negotiate; appears in General Sessions Court for pleas, status hearings, bond hearings, and other hearings; prepares for trials; meets with law enforcement; enters notes of all in each defendants electronic file, as well as maintains a paper docket with notes to document all that has occurred. [4] During the past two years this has been manageable for the 2-person prosecution team but is becoming increasingly harder now that court has opened back up to juggle the demands from trials being placed on the trial docket and attending to the day to day of new cases being assigned.

➤ Broad Goal

➤ Set a S.M.A.R.T Goal

➤ EXAMPLE: “The primary purpose of this program is to decrease the backlog and/or reduce the number of domestic violence cases through the active and successful prosecution of such cases. A dedicated team consisting of Assistant Solicitors would be involved in the full-time investigation, preparation, and prosecution of domestic violence cases.”

➤ Specific Plan

➤ Outline of Duties and Responsibilities

➤ EXAMPLE: “The following tasks and activities will be employed to provide for the active and successful prosecution of cases: The Assistant Solicitor (s) will attend to the day-to-day direction of case preparation and will prosecute domestic violence cases within the ABG Circuit. In addition, they will interview potential witnesses, correspond with counsel for the defendant and the Court, research legal issues, and coordinate the logistics of the actual trial.”

Grant Application – Project Objectives

- Objectives are specific, quantified statements of expected results of the project.
- The objectives must be described in terms of measurable events that can be realistically expected under time constraints and resources.
- Objectives must be related to the Problem Statement and Project Purpose.
